

Do you have an outstanding Geography teacher at your school?

If so, nominate your teacher for a DD Harris Award that recognises excellence in Geography teaching.

The Life Members of the Geography Teachers' Association of South Australia wish to recognise the efforts of Geography Teachers. Many great contributions to classroom teaching have been made over the years, but few have been recognised.

Details

Up to four awards will be made annually to teachers of Geography. Successful nominees will be notified prior to the GTASA Conference in May, when the awards are presented.

The nomination form is printed below and is also available online at www.gtasa.asn.au

Nominate your teacher by 31st October 2017

THE DD HARRIS Award NOMINATION FORM

Aim of the Award:

To encourage the development of ideas, materials and practice for use in the classroom in the teaching of Geography and Humanities & Social Sciences (HASS).

Scope

The whole range of teaching practice is considered. Providing published accounts is not necessary, but a summary will be required for later publication. The award is aimed more at 'what is happening this year in the classroom' to further excellence in teaching practice. This could include specific work units, field work, practical work, computer activity, worksheets, curriculum development and teacher organisation.

Recognition

The Life Members wish to recognise the efforts of Geography teachers. Many great contributions to classroom teaching have been made over the years, but few have been recognised. Through this award we hope to maintain the interest of teachers and stimulate interest in your colleagues' efforts in developing our professional capabilities.

DD Harris

Don Harris was involved in teaching and professional development in this state for over 60 years. He was well known as an author of many books and his leadership role was outstanding.
